A highly polished brass folder and creaser, ideal for working in fine detail. The tool allows you to work with curved or straight shapes and for applying all kinds of patterns from its fine rounded tip. It can also be heated to give more defined lines when working with inlays and onlays or when working with foil on leather, cloth or paper.

You can also transfer designs through translucent paper, leaving a perfect clear line across the paper. The handle of each folder is covered in leather and comes with its own leather sheath (leather colours vary). -
