The Belgian Antiquarian Booksellers' Association is cordially inviting you to visit the 4th edition of the Salon du Mont des Arts, the leading event for antiquarian book and print lovers in Belgium. The fair will take place at the Royal Academy of Belgium in the heart of Brussels. This prestigious venue is located opposite the Royal Palace and the Parc de Bruxelles in the city centre; it is close to the Sablon and the famed Grand-Place as well as the Royal Library of Belgium and many important museums, including the Magritte Museum, the Musical Instruments Museum, and the Fine Arts Museum.

With about forty exhibitors from France, Germany, Switzerland, Britain, The Netherlands and Belgium offering atlases and maps, early printed books, designer bookbindings, children's books, modern illustrated books, master prints, manuscripts, travel books, autographs, Japanese prints, first editions, decorative prints, avant-garde books and ephemera and much more!

ARA BELGICA will be guest of honour, with an exhibition of designer bookbindings.
